

Yannick Yanga

.NET Developer

Junior Developer with a passion for web application development and a strong focus on writing clean code.

After completing a web development training at BeCode and gaining experience through an internship in React, I deepened my knowledge of C# and ASP.NET Core and Angular by working on personal projects.

Currently seeking my first professional opportunity, I am eager to join a dynamic team where I can contribute my skills to innovative solutions and continue growing as a developer.
